ACADEMIC PROGRAM GUIDE

Levels of Study	Undergraduate and Graduate
Language of Instruction	Japanese or English

English-taught Undergraduate Departments
Faculty of Liberal Arts (FLA)	Department of Liberal Arts
	Centered around courses in Comparative Culture, International Business and Economics, and Social Studies, the broad interdisciplinary curriculum of the Faculty of Liberal Arts (FLA) is designed to extend the general knowledge of students while developing their critical thinking ability. A wide range of courses that are focused on Japan help students gain an understanding of both present-day Japan and its traditions in a global context. https://fla.sophia.ac.jp/
Faculty of Science and Technology (FST)	Department of Materials and Life Sciences - Green Science Program
	The Green Science program is designed to provide a fundamental knowledge of substances, and to resolve environmental issues at the atomic and molecular levels based on green material sciences. https://fst.sophia.ac.jp/en/about
	Department of Engineering and Applied Sciences - Green Engineering Program
	The Green Engineering program is designed to provide electrical and mechanical engineering skills that will lead to the further development of energy-conservation technologies, efficient power generation, transmission and distribution. https://fst.sophia.ac.jp/en/about

* In addition to the faculties listed above, many other faculties offer lecture courses taught in English.
Students may take other lecture courses while being enrolled in the Faculty above. Details will be provided after accepted.

English-Taught Graduate Programs
Global Studies (GPGS)	The Graduate Program in Global Studies emphasizes inquiry into the contemporary world and its historical antecedents by combining the interdisciplinary themes of global studies, theories and the methods of academic disciplines, and cross-cultural understandings of Japanese and area studies. It has three MA degrees - Global Studies, International Business and Development Studies, and Japanese Studies - each with its own specialized curriculum. Graduate exchange students are welcome to take content courses that are consistent with their graduate degree and for which they have sufficient background. https://www.sophia.ac.jp/eng/gpgs/
Global Environmental Studies (GES)	The curriculum covers three fields: Economics and Business Administration for the Environment, Law and Policies, Sociology for the Environment, and Science and Engineering for the Environment. One of the strategies of this program is to enhance the capacity of students to contribute to the solving of current environmental issues by offering them a wide variety of practical and discipline-specific programs. https://genv.sophia.ac.jp/en/
Green Science and Engineering	Green Science and Engineering places an emphasis on environment- and sustainability-related studies, which are of paramount importance to the future of mankind. To foster cross-disciplinary education, faculty members drawn from all the other eight divisions(see details from website) are involved in the teaching. https://fst.sophia.ac.jp/en/graduate/igp
Linguistics <TESOL>	Program in Linguistics (TESOL) provides courses with an emphasis on both theory and practice. The faculty members represent a diverse spectrum of applied linguistics and language education, ensuring a comprehensive program for all who are interested in teaching English as a second or foreign language.

OTHER INFORMATION

Student Supporter	Exchange students can sign up for the Student Supporter Program before arriving at Sophia University. The student supporter is often the first Sophia student the exchange student meets before classes begin. Student supporters not only assist exchange students at the beginning of the semester, but students are also encouraged to interact with each other throughout the study abroad period and beyond.
Events	Exchange students also regularly take part in cultural events. Sophia University offers opportunities such as a "Rakugo Event", "flower arrangement experience", "tea ceremony experiences", and "Kabuki Tour". https://piloti.sophia.ac.jp/eng/studyabroad/exchangeprograms/past-events/
GL- Net	"Global-Network," more commonly known as "GL-Net" is a student volunteer organization that hosts a variety of events to encourage interaction between local and international students at Sophia. What makes"GL-Net" unique is that it is officially supported by Sophia University's Center for Global Education and Discovery.
Extracurricular Activities	At Sophia University, more than 270 groups are active as authorized circles. All exchange students are welcome to participate in Sophia's Extracurricular Activities. For more information including the list of student club and circles, please visit the link below. https://piloti.sophia.ac.jp/eng/activity/ea/
Short-term Programs	Sophia University offers short-term programs in July and January. Short-term programs are aside from exchange program, and participants in short-term programs are responsible for arranging their own visas and accommodations. The programs enable participants to look at Japan from many different perspectives. As for the summer session, over 11,000 students from around the globe have attended the programs over the years, and many have gone on to pursue exciting careers related to Japan. https://piloti.sophia.ac.jp/eng/studyabroad/short-term/
