

GENERAL STUDIES

PHILOSOPHICAL ANTHROPOLOGY

The following Philosophical Anthropology(人間学) courses are compulsory for all students who enter the Faculty of Liberal Arts. These courses must be taken in combination with each other, and in principle should be taken in the semester the student enters the university.

PHA121	Philosophical Anthropology 1	2 cr
PHA122	Philosophical Anthropology 2	2 cr

LANGUAGES

Students must complete 8 credits in one single language chosen from among the languages offered in the university's language program:

- Chinese, French, Japanese, Spanish (offered by FLA)
- Arabic, German, Indonesian, Korean, Latin, Portuguese, Russian, Tagalog (offered by other faculties or the General Foreign Language Program 一般外国語教育センター)

N.B.

1. Students are encouraged to select a language that they have not previously studied. A student who chooses a language he or she has studied previously and is placed at an advanced level may encounter difficulties in completing the required 8 credits in one language.
2. The language required for non-native speakers of Japanese is Japanese unless they demonstrate sufficient proficiency on the Japanese Placement Test. Citizenship is not a consideration in determining whether a student is a native or non-native speaker; students who are uncertain whether they are a native or non-native speaker should consult one of the Japanese language teachers. See also, p. 59.
3. Language Courses must be taken in the correct sequence. Credit will not be given for a language course of a level lower than one taken previously.
4. Students who wish to continue study of a language other than Japanese beyond the required 8 credits may include additional credits in their SE Electives as specified below:
 - a. Up to 4 credits of advanced courses in the same language selected to fulfill the language requirement may be included in the student's SE Electives.

- b. Up to 8 credits in a second language may be included as SE Electives.
 - c. Apart from Japanese, the credits for a third language cannot be counted for graduation.
5. All students, whether native or non-native speakers, may include up to a total of 28 credits in Japanese as SE Electives.
 6. In principle, no withdrawals are allowed for language classes offered by other faculties and programs. If a student withdraws from such a class, he/she may not subsequently choose that language to fulfill the language requirement.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

“Theory and Practice of Wellness” (ウエルネスの理論と実践), 2 credits, is compulsory for all students. This course should be taken in the semester the student enters the university. The course will be offered in Japanese and English every semester. Students will be assigned to the appropriate class. A special course for handicapped students will also be offered every Autumn semester (see the “Course Schedule and Other Announcements”). No withdrawals are allowed for PE courses.

INFORMATION LITERACY

“Information Literacy” (情報リテラシー), 2 credits, is compulsory for all students. In principle, this course should be taken in the semester the student enters the university, but, for linguistic reasons, some students may delay taking it until their second term. It will be offered in Japanese every semester; an English version will be offered every autumn semester. Students will be assigned to appropriate classes. No withdrawals are allowed for this course.

GS DISTRIBUTION AND ELECTIVE COURSES

The courses offered by the Faculty of Liberal Arts as part of the General Studies program provide an introduction to major themes and approaches to study in various key areas of human knowledge. Students must take one course from each of the three categories of GS Distribution Courses (The Legacy of the Past, Cultural Traditions, and The Contemporary World) for a total of 12 credits. In addition to the 12 credits of GS Distribution Courses, students must take a further 4 credits as GS Electives. These 4 credits may be chosen from (a) any of the three categories of GS Distribution Courses, (b) FLA General Studies Elective Courses, or (c) any courses listed in the university-wide General Studies Program as Zengaku Kyôtsû Kamoku (全学共通科目).

Some courses are listed under both General Studies and Specialized Education categories and may be chosen to fulfill requirements in either category. However, the same course may not be used to fulfill requirements in both categories simultaneously.
