

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

FLA and FCC students who wish to apply for one of the following certificates should submit their application in their last term. They will receive the certificate at the time of graduation.

JAPANESE STUDIES CERTIFICATE

Together with completing the requirements for a B.A. degree from FLA/FCC, students may combine GS, Major, and Specialized Elective courses to obtain a Certificate in Japanese Studies (日本研究履修証明). For the certificate they should complete six courses (24 credits) in designated Japanese Studies(JS) courses according to the following specifications.

JS courses are divided among two categories: A (Comparative Culture) and B (Social Studies and IBE). FLA/FCC students must take a combination of courses from both categories, with a maximum of four courses (16 credits) from a single category. At least three courses (12 credits) must be taken as SE electives.

Students from other faculties and non-degree students may obtain a Certificate in Japanese Studies by completing six courses (24 credits) in designated FLA/FCC JS courses. These students should take a combination of courses from categories A and B, with a maximum of four courses (16 credits) from a single category.

JAPANESE LANGUAGE PEDAGOGY CERTIFICATE

Together with completing the requirements for a B.A. degree from FLA/FCC, students may combine GS and SE Elective courses from the Faculty of Liberal Arts and the Faculty of Foreign Studies to obtain a certificate in Japanese Language Pedagogy (日本語教授法履修証明). Students from other faculties and non-degree students may also obtain the certificate by fulfilling the requirements listed below.

The Ministry of Education's guidelines for the qualification to teach in Japanese language schools (below university level) are a bachelor's degree in Japanese Language Pedagogy or successful completion of the Japanese Teaching Competency Test authorized by the Ministry in 1988. Although FLA/FCC cannot offer courses in all the areas covered by the test, the program aims to provide a foundation for students who would like to prepare themselves to take it.

Students who wish to pursue this certificate should take 24 credits as described below.
