

Facilitator Profile 1/2

A management consultant with a variety of consulting and educational experiences will lead you through this workshop.

Masaki Sugimoto | CEO of MAP U Inc. / Management Consultant

CEO of a management consulting firm specializing in organization / human resource development, CHRO of a semiconductor-related manufacturer, and a board director of an educational firm.

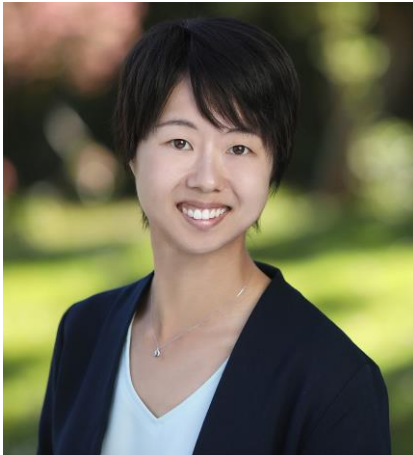

Also offers career education to several universities.

Has a background of serving for global consulting firm and developed variety of consulting experiences to support numbers of clients.

Masaki is also a recreational RAKUGO practitioner.

Facilitator Profile 2/2

Global leaders will join this workshop as guests

Yasuko Jody Toda | CEO of several companies

Youngest CEO of private companies in Japan in 2015. Served as a consultant at a global consulting firm as a new graduate mostly in charge of organization reformation projects. Joined a semi conductor electronics related company and served for her father who then was a CEO. At the age of 27, she succeeded the company including 6 global subsidiaries. Her leader job is mostly focused on how to make her people happy.

Jody has also established her private company to support people and organization for change and create innovation.

Topics

- Graduated from Sophia University
- Forbes Women Award 2016 “Innovative Leader Award”
- 2017 St. Gallen Symposium Leaders of Tomorrow