

Sophia-Arrupe International Residence Mission and Vision

Sophia-Arrupe International Residence is a place for the practice of Sophia educational principles of Christian Humanism and Sophia University's vision: "Sophia - Bringing the World Together". It allows all students with different nationalities, cultures, languages and religions to live in one dormitory, learn and grow from the diversity together.

"Sophia-Arrupe International Residence" is derived from Fr. Arrupe Pedro, who was the twenty-eighth Superior General of the Society of Jesus (SJ) and clarified the principles of "Jesuit Ignatian-Education", which sets educational policy of Jesuit schools. This philosophy and our school motto, "Men and Women for Others, with Others," is derived from his vision and proposal.

◇Mission◇

"For Others, With Others"

Sophia-Arrupe International Residence is a place that aims to bring up persons of global competency based on the educational principles of Christian Humanism and, guided by Sophia University's vision: "Sophia - Bringing the World Together."

◇Vision◇

•Freedom and Responsibility

Residents have the freedom to create any educational opportunity in accordance with the Mission and are responsible to maintain the order of residence.

•Coexistence through understanding 'the other'

Residents are expected to accept others' characteristics and diversity, and respect the attitude to live together.

•Self-development as Global Agent

Residents are expected to acquire a sense of global leadership by making own effort and insight toward solving social issues the humanity faces.