Sophia University Graduate School Scholarship

for Fostering Researchers in Doctoral Program

(For 2022 new and current students)

The scholarship is intended to foster excellent researchers with outstanding research abilities to lead the research activities of Sophia University and the international development. This is provided for regular students enrolled in Doctoral Programs of Sophia University and who satisfy the requirements of the scholarship to encourage their research activities.

Overview of scholarship

	Students who are recommended by the Dean of the Graduate School and who satisfy the following requirements:
	1) Currently enrolled regular students who are within required residence term (excluding continuing enrollment students, readmitted students, students on full-year leave of absence)
	2) Graduate School judges that the students have concrete research plans, dedicate efforts on research, and will attain satisfactory achievements for obtaining a degree.
	(New students who have passed the entrance examination will be considered to satisfy Eligible	eligibility 2) requirements.
students	3) Students to whom the following does not apply:
	· a recipient of scholarships granted as Japanese government project ("Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship for Research Students", "JICA acceptance of trainees by universities (JICA 大学委託受入研修員) ", "The Project for Human Resource Development Scholarship (JDS) "etc.)
	 incoming students funded by foreign governments.
	 a recipient of external scholarship that prohibits receiving multiple scholarships
	*Students are eligible if they are recipients of other Sophia University scholarships, JSPS Research Fellow, RA, TA.
	1) For Sophia University Graduate Schools other than Graduate School of Science and Technology: Annual amount of 300,000 yen
Scholarship	2) For Sophia University Graduate School of Science and Technology: Annual amount amount	of 400,000 yen
amount	 Scholarship payment shall be provided after entering university.
	• Scholarship period shall be the required residence term (three years) as a rule.
	However, the approval for continuation of scholarship period will be determined by the Number of students All students who satisfy the eligibility requirements and are recommended by the Dean of Graduate School will receive the scholarship. Scholarship candidates are students who are recommended by the Dean of Graduate School and have passed the entrance examination. (Students do not need to submit scholarship application at admission.) "Notification of selected recipients" will be issued when the results of entrance examinations are announced. Scholarship candidates will be confirmed as scholarship recipients only after they enroll in Doctoral Program of Sophia University Graduate School and take the specified procedures as instructed separately. (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholar		screening for scholarship continuation held every year by the Graduate School and students of Graduate School will receive the scholarship. - Scholarship candidates are students who are recommended by the Dean of Graduate School and have passed the entrance examination. (Students do not need to submit scholarship application at admission.) - "Notification of selected recipients" will be issued when the results of entrance examinations are announced. - Scholarship candidates will be confirmed as scholarship recipients only after they enroll in Doctoral Program of Sophia University Graduate School and take the specified procedures as instructed separately. (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. - "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. - "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) - "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. - Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the schol		based on the progress of research plan.

Schoolarship candidates are students who are recommended by the Dean of Graduate School and have passed the entrance examination. (Students do not need to submit scholarship application at admission.) "Notification of selected recipients" will be issued when the results of entrance examinations are announced. Scholarship candidates will be confirmed as scholarship recipients only after they enroll in Doctoral Program of Sophia University Graduate School and take the specified procedures as instructed separately. (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period of leave of absence. Partial leave o	Number of	All students who satisfy the eligibility requirements and are recommended by the Dean
School and have passed the entrance examination. (Students do not need to submit scholarship application at admission.) "Notification of selected recipients" will be issued when the results of entrance examinations are announced. Scholarship candidates will be confirmed as scholarship recipients only after they enroll in Doctoral Program of Sophia University Graduate School and take the specified procedures as instructed separately. (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year w	students	of Graduate School will receive the scholarship.
scholarship application at admission.) "Notification of selected recipients" will be issued when the results of entrance examinations are announced. Scholarship candidates will be confirmed as scholarship recipients only after they enroll in Doctoral Program of Sophia University Graduate School and take the specified procedures as instructed separately. (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship poney. The scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship ball be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia Universi		• Scholarship candidates are students who are recommended by the Dean of Graduate
Selection process "Notification of selected recipients" will be issued when the results of entrance examinations are announced. Scholarship candidates will be confirmed as scholarship recipients only after they enroll in Doctoral Program of Sophia University Graduate School and take the specified procedures as instructed separately. (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholars		School and have passed the entrance examination. (Students do not need to submit
Screening for scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. Screening for scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University		scholarship application at admission.)
Screening for scholarship continuation. Scholarship continuation. Screening for scholarship continuation. Scholarship continuation. Suspension. Suspe		· "Notification of selected recipients" will be issued when the results of entrance enroll in Doctoral Program of Sophia University Graduate School and take the specified procedures as instructed separately. (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University	Selection specified procedures as instructed separately. (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Bevery year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times.	process (scholarship payment: May 2022 for spring new students; October 2022 for autumn new students) Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University Screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times.
Every year, screening for scholarship continuation is held for continuing scholarship in the next academic year. "scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times.
Screening for scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University
Screening for scholarship continuation": "scholarship continuation" shall be approved for students recommended by the Dean of Graduate School based on eligibility, academic performance, and progress of research plan and achievements. "suspension": scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Cancellation Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University Screening for scholarship continuation Screening for scholarship screening continuation Screening for scholarship scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) Screening for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) Screening for a year (scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University Screening for scholarship continuation Scholarship continuation Termination: scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) Termination: scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) Termination: scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) Termination: scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University		- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · suspension: scholarship shall be "suspended" and not provided in the following year, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) termination: scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter)*: scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University"		, if there is considerable delay in research plan, obvious loss of motivation, for reasons not attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Pull-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University"	Screening attributable to unavoidable circumstances. The student loses rights to receive scholarship for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University	for for a year (scholarship will not be provided exceeding required residence term) "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Cancellation Cancellation	scholarship	, · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
 "termination": scholarship shall be "terminated" and not provided in the following year or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Cancellation 	continuation or thereafter, if student is subject to dismissal or suspension from university or the student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. • Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. • Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. • In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. • Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University student shows poor demeanor inappropriate for a recipient. Further, the student may be required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. • Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. • Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. • In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. • Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University required to give back the scholarship money retroactively. • Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. • Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. • In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. • Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University		, Full-year leave of absence: the scholarship payment shall be "intermitted (no payment)" for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Cancellation for the particular year and resumed when student returns to university. If leave of absence is decided after scholarship payment has been made, student must give back the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. • Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. • In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. • Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University Leave of absence. Leave of absence. Leave of absence. Leave of absence. A partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Cancellation Cancellation Leave of absence. the scholarship money. The scholarship will be continued for the required residence term (three years) excluding the period of leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Cancellation Cancellation Leave of absence. Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Cancellation Cancellation Partial leave of absence(half-year, quarter): scholarship payment for the particular year will be continued. In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. Cancellation Cancellation will be continued. • In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. • Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University scholarship payment may be made only up to three times. • Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University Cancellation
• Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University		• In both cases, the enrollment period will be extended due to leave of absence, but
Cancellation		scholarship payment may be made only up to three times.
Regulations for Scholarship Recipients".	C11	Scholarship shall be cancelled if student violates "Article 9, Sophia University
	Cancellation	Regulations for Scholarship Recipients".

	· Further, scholarship shall be cancelled if decision is made to "terminate" the scholarship by the screening for scholarship continuation or by the Graduate School.
	• Student must notify promptly if any circumstances arise after scholarship payment is
Other points	made that deprive the eligibility criteria.
to note	e.g.: student receives external scholarship that prohibits receipt of multiple scholarships ⇒ Sophia University scholarship will be cancelled.